1. At the present time important strategic roads are being constructed in Poland, estimated at a total cost of 20 billion zloty. The work is being directed by German engineers who are controlled by a high administration of Soviet experts. About 150 engineers have arrived in Poland from East Berlin; they are primarily concerned with the preliminary work for the construction of these roads. The plans particularly concern two principal arteries: Bialystok-Wroclaw (Breslau) and Gdynia-Lvov.
2. In Poland there are approximately 4,000 Greek Communists who took part in the civil war and subsequently were evacuated through Albania and Yugoslavia. Today these individuals work in the chemical industry in the Zgorzelec (Goerlitz) area. They are reportedly very discontent with the treatment they receive and are under severe political police surveillance.
